Outstanding Dedication!

Carolyn Dezzi Receives PLC Lifetime Membership Award.

Outgoing Board Secretary, Carolyn Dezzi, was recently honored by the Philadelphia Loss Conference (PLC) for her many years of hard work and dedication to the organization's mission and goals.

At the May 15, 2012 general meeting, PLC President Cathy Gicker, presented Carolyn with the award and stated..."The PLC Board of Directors and members are thrilled to present Carolyn Dezzi the coveted Lifetime Membership Award. As the PLC Secretary since 2001, Carolyn has been a vital, active, professional and productive member of the Board and is most deserving of this accolade."

Established in 1965, the Philadelphia Loss Conference is a professional association dedicated to the education of insurance claims adjusters, the promotion of good relations and the exchange of ideas between all those associated with the adjustment of insurance claims.

Carolyn is a Business Development Representative for Mellon Certified Restoration. She plans to continue her membership in the PLC and looks forward to devoting extra time to her elected position as a Committee Person for Springfield Township and as a new member of the Delaware County Fallen Firefighter & EMS Memorial Committee.
